

CONTENTS

Presentation of authors	7
Preface	11
I. Problematising “Europe”: developments in media discourse	23
“Europe” as a media format. Strategies for constructing public problems in the Romanian press (Camelia Beciu)	25
Dialogue in multilingual communities: aspects of allocutive behaviour in the Romanian media. (The case of Romania) (Margareta Magda)	62
“Romania: Green light to join the European Union?” Evaluation in media discourse (Irina Diana Mădroane)	102
II. Europe in the social imaginary	121
The imagined Europe: cognitive evaluation of moral emotions (Nicolae Perpelea)	123
Identity constructs and social representations of ‘Europe’ in present-day Romanian society (Simona Ștefănescu)	184
The blogosphere – a fifth power? The critique of journalism in Portugal and the reconfiguration of European public space (Nicolas Pélissier, Marcia Rogerio Grilo)	236
III. Institutional discourse and situational strategies	263
Re-scaling higher education in Romania: a discourse-analytical perspective on strategies of implementation and resistance (Isabela Iețcu, Norman Fairclough)	165
The European Security Strategy – a discourse analysis (Otilia Dragomir)	293
A question of orders? Religious discourse and European integration in the light of the Buttiglione affair (François Foret)	331
Football and European identity – the 2006 World Championship and the presence of the European Union in Berlin (Dana Mănescu)	356
Sommaire	381